"Making a Difference— What Difference Does It Make?"

Ms. Lillian Sue Livers, Foundation Director of the King's Daughters' Hospital and Health Service, will be at our next Chamber Membership meeting on Monday, May 14.

Ms. Livers will be talking about the importance of being involved in family activities, community activities, professional activities and having a personal mission is how we choose to make a difference in this world. This presentation will explore the impact we have on our future and the lives of those around us. It will persuade each of us to take an inventory on "What am I giving back?"

Ms. Livers, has a BS degree in Home Economics and Biology from Manchester College, Masters in Health Promotion and Disease Prevention from the University of Louisville.

CARROLL COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

ANNUAL AWARDS AND RECOGNITION BANQUET

The Chamber Board of Directors are working to develop an exciting Awards and Recognition Banquet for this year. Jockey Pat Day will be our guest speaker this year.

Patrick Alan "Pat" Day born October 13, 1953 in Brush, CO, is an American jockey. He is a four-time winner of the Eclipse Award for Outstanding Jockey and was introduced into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 1991. Day also received the George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award in 1985, given annually to a North American jockey who demonstrates the highest standards of professional and personal conduct. In 1995, he was voted the Mike Venezia Memorial Award for "extraordinary sportsmanship and citizenship".

Day has ridden winners of U.S. Triple Crown races nine times. In 1999 he rode Menifee, who placed directly behind Charismatic in both the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness Stakes. Prior to the Belmont Stakes, where Menifee failed to place in the top three and Charismatic broke down in the final furlong, their rivalry was compared to that of Affirmed and Alydar in 1978.

In 1991, Pat Day won the Canadian Triple Crown and the Breeders' Cup Distaff aboard the future Hall of Fame filly Dance Smartly. He is the only jockey to have ridden at least one mount in each of the first 20 Breeders' Cups, and ranks second all-time in Breeders' Cup winners, with 12.

Day is also the all-time leading rider at Churchill Downs and Keeneland, the two largest tracks in his adopted home state of Kentucky. At the Downs, Day was often so dominant that veteran horseplayers would complain—bettors would often wager so much money on horses with Day in the saddle that the payoff odds would decline.

In 1989, he set a North American record when he won eight of nine mounts in a single day at Arlington Park.

Early in his career, he had serious substance abuse problems with both drugs and alcohol, but became a born-again Christian in the early 1980s. He has been involved with the Race Track Chaplaincy of America since his conversion, and is currently the racing industry's representative on the board of that organization.

After undergoing hip surgery that forced him to miss the Derby for the first time in 21 years, Day announced his retirement on August 3, 2005 after a 32-year career that saw him ride 8,804 winners, earning nearly USD 298 million.

Day and his family reside in Crestwood, a suburb of Louisville, Kentucky.

Lil E. Tee was an American-bred Thoroughbred racehorse who in 1992 scored one of the biggest upsets in the history of the Kentucky Derby. His jockey was Pat Day; this was Pat Day's first and only Kentucky Derby victory.
